Commonwealth v. Johnson (Mass.), 28; Gabrielli v. Knickerbocker (Calif.), 28; Hering v. State Board of Education (N. J.), 28; Hughes v. Caddo Parish School Board (La.), 29; Isgrig v. Srygley (Ark.), 29; Lee v. Hoffman (Iowa), 29; Leoles v. Landers (Ga.), 28; Marlar v. Bill (Tenn.), 27; Minersville School District v. Gobitis, 28; Nicholls v. Lynn (Mass.), 28; People ex rel. Fish v. Sandstrom (N. Y.), 28; People ex rel. Hogan v. Newton (N. Y.), 26; People v. Chiafreddo (Ill.), 28; People v. Mummert (N. Y.), 27; Satan Fraternity v. Board of Public Instruction for Dade County (Fla.), 29; State ex rel. Bleich v. Board of Public Instruction (Fla.), 28; State v. Davis (Ariz.), 28; State v. Lefebre (N. H.), 28; State v. Smith (Kans.), 28; Steele v. Sexton (Mich.), 29; Wayland v. Board of School Directors of Seattle (Wash.), 29; West Virginia State Board of Education v. Barnette, 28; Wilson v. Abilene Independent School District (Texas), 29; Wright v. Board of Education of St. Louis (Mo.), 29.

Court decisions, pupil injuries: Antin v. Union High School District No. 2 (Oreg.), 31; Bank v. Brainerd School District (Minn.), 31; Bellman v. San Francisco High School District (Calif.), 34; Benson v. Baltimore Traction Company (Md.), 33; Bradfield v. Board of Education of Pleasants County (W. Va.), 36; Cartwright v. Graves (Tenn.), 35; Earl W. Baker & Company v. Lagaly (Okla.), 35; Edkins v. Board of Education of New York City (N. Y.), 34; Foster v. Einer (Calif.), 35; Fulgoni v. Johnston (Mass.), 35; Gardner v. State of New York (N. Y.), 34; Gholston v. Richards (Tenn.), 35; Gilcrease v. Spight (La.), 36; Govel v. Board of Education of Albany (N. Y.), 34; Guerrieri v. Tyson (Pa.), 32; Hackling v. Board of Education of Vestal School District No. 1 (N. Y.), 36; Harrell v. Graham (Ga.), 36; Hunter v. Boyd (S. C.), 35; LaValley v. Stanford (N. Y.), 34; Lawver v. Joint District No. 1, Mount Horeb and Blue Mounds (Wis.), 33; McKenna v. Board of Education of New York City (N. Y.), 33; McVeigh v. Harrison (Ga.), 36; May v. Board of Education of Union Free School District No. 1, Town of Mamaroneck (N. Y.), 33; Miller v. Board of Education, Union Free School District No. 1 of Town of Albion (N. Y.), 34; Oda v. Elk Grove Union Grammar School District (Calif.), 36; Redfield v. School District (Wash.), 31; Reeder v. Board of Education of New York City (N. Y.), 34; Reeves v. Tittle (Texas), 35; Ridge v. Boulder Creek Union Junior-Senior High School District of Santa Cruz County (Calif.), 34; Sullivan v. City of Binghamton (N. Y.), 34; Taylor v. Cobble (Tenn.), 35; Utz v. Board of Education of Brooke County (W. Va.), 36; Warney v. Board of Education of School District No. 5 of Irondequoit (N. Y.), 35; Weber v. State (N. Y.), 35; Weems v. Robbins (Ala.), 35; Whitfield v. East Baton Rouge Parish School Board (La.), 34; Wilber v. Binghamton (N. Y.), 34.

Court decisions, rights and privileges of pupils with regard to instructional program: Board of Education of Detroit v. Detroit (Mich.), 24; Ehret v. School District of Kulpmont (Pa.), 23; Gordon v. Board of Education of Los Angeles (Calif.), 24; Hobbs v. Hodges, Grantham v. Same (Md.), 25; Honey Creek School Township v. Barnes (Ind.), 24; Jones v. Board of Trustees of Culver City School District (Calif.), 22; Macmillan Company v. Clarke (Calif.), 25; Meyer v. Nebraska, 23; People ex rel. Latimer v. Board of Education of Chicago (Ill.), 24; People ex rel. Lewis v. Graves (N. Y.), 23; People ex rel. McCollum v. Board of Education (Ill.), 24; Prevey v. School District (Mich.), 22; Ries v. Hemmer (Iowa), 24; Scopes v. State (Tenn.), 23; Segar v. Board of Education (Ill.), 24, 25; Sherer v. School District of North Beaver Township (Pa.), 22; State ex rel. Dearle v. Frazier (Wash.), 23; Stein v. Brown (N. Y.), 23.

Cubberley, Ellwood P.: referred to, 45.

Curriculum: legal status of public-school pupil with respect to, 22–25; local discretion regarding, in absence of state prescriptions, 22–23; Nebraska statute declared unconstitutional, 23; prescribed courses fixed by state law, 22; released time for religious education, 23–24; sectarian education, 23–24; state legislature, power of regarding, 23.

Education: state responsibility for, 45–47.

Educational Finance Inquiry Commission: referred to, 87.

Equalization aid: defined, 45–47.

Expulsion of public-school children: court cases regarding, 28–30.

Foundation programs for schools, State: See School finance.

Givens, Willard E.: forewords, 4, 44, 104, 144.

Group hospitalization and insurance: for members of local education associations, 125, 129.

Haig, Robert Murray: referred to, 46, 82.

Hamilton, R. R.: referred to, 5.

Hamon, Ray L.: referred to, 166.

Hillhouse, A. M.: referred to, 83.

Hoffman, M. David: referred to, 119.

Insurance, Liability: for schoolboards, 36.

Labor laws: application of, for pupil injuries, 35.

Lawsuits: procedural issues in claiming damages, 36.

Legal status: of public-school pupils, 1–40; See also Public-school children.

Lewis, John W.: estimate of expenditure for school buildings, 159.

Liability, Legal: for accidents to public-school pupils, 31–36; of school districts, 31–32; of teachers, 32–33.

Local education associations: See Associations, Local education.

Magelssen, Muriel: referred to, 83.

Moehlman, Arthur B.: referred to, 46.

Morrison, Henry: referred to, 46.

Mort, P. R.: referred to, 5, 47, 50, 51, 86.

National Commission on Safety Education: referred to, 18.

National Council of Chief State School Officers: referred to, 18.

National Education Association, Department of Classroom Teachers: News Bulletin, referred to, 119.

National Education Association, Research Division: "The Ability of the States To Support Education," January 1926, referred to, 48; "Major Issues of School Finance," January 1927, referred to, 47; "School Finance Goals," October 1946, referred to, 92; School Finance Systems, referred to, 79.

National Reporter System: source of information, 5.

National Survey of School Finance: referred to, 50.

Nation's Schools: referred to, 159.

Newcomer, Mabel: referred to, 48.

Overseas Teacher-Relief Fund: referred to, 131.

Public-school children: admission of, to a particular school, 9–10; admission of married pupils, 6; age limits of, 6–7; age limits of, for compulsory attendance, 13–14; compulsory attendance laws, 13–16; Constitutional provisions regarding admission to public schools, 6; corporal punishment, court cases, 26–27; discipline of, 26–30; employment of, 18–21; expulsion, court cases regarding, 28–30; first-aid treatment for, by teachers, 32–33; injuries to, 31–36; instructional programs, legal status of, 22–25; legal right of, to choose subjects, 22; legal status of, 1–40; liability of school districts for injuries to, 31–32; liability of teachers for injuries to, 32; qualifications of, for admission to public schools, 6; references to related publications, 39; residence of, required, 7–8; scholarships for, 25; segregation of, 10–12; suspension, powers of schoolboards, 27–28; textbooks, free, provided, 24–25; transportation of, 16–18; tuition charges for, 8–9; vaccination requirements for, 12.

Public schools: admission of married children to, 6; admission of pupils to, 6; age limits for attendance, 6–7; compulsory attendance laws for, 13–16; Constitutional provisions regarding admission to, 6; court cases regarding admission to a particular school, 9; race segregation in, 10–12; tuition charges for, 8–9; vaccination requirement for admission to, 12; See also Public-school children.

Recruitment of teachers: plans of local education associations, 124, 127–28.

Released time for religious education: court cases regarding, 23–24.

Residence: legal requirement for free public-school attendance, 7–8.

Scholarships: for high-school graduates, 25; principles for granting, 25.

School buildings: age of school buildings, 146–47; building projects under construction, 156–57; capacity, estimated, of school buildings under construction or under contract, December 1947, 157; Cocking's estimate of school building needs, 159; construction cost trends, 161–64; cost, estimated, of projects under construction or contract, 156; cost, per cubic foot, 163–64; estimate of Twenty-Sixth Yearbook Commission of American Association of School Administrators on expenditure for school buildings, 159; estimate of U. S. Office of Education on costs of school housing needs, 159; half-day sessions, 152–53; index of building costs, 162–63; Lewis' estimate of expenditures for, 159; needs in city-school systems, 1947–48, 141–67; number and percent of pupils attending at least part of their classes in temporary buildings, 155; number and percent of replies to questionnaire, 145; number and percent of school building projects urgently needed, January 1948, 158; number and percent of school buildings in cities of various geographic regions by date of construction, 146; overcrowded, 148–51; percent of buildings overcrowded and percent of pupils attending overcrowded schools, by region and population group, 1947–48, 149; percent of cities in which at least part of the schools were overcrowded, 1947–48, 148; percent of cities reporting some use of temporary buildings, 154; percent of school dollar used for school construction in recent decades, 161; percent that proposed projects would be of existing buildings, 160; suggestions on how to cope with school housing shortages, 165–66; temporary housing arrangements, 154–55; Thurston's estimate of needed expenditures for, 159.

School bus drivers: liability of, 35–36; qualifications for, 18.
School costs: See School finance.
School finance: amount of state contribution, foundation program, 86–91; budgetary receipts as a measure of local financial ability, 81; capital outlays in foundation programs, 52; cost, estimated, of school building projects under construction or under contract, 156; cost of construction of school buildings, 161–64; cost of foundation program should represent substantial part of total school expenditures within state, 93; definition of the foundation program, 92–93; desirable features of foundation program laws, 92–94; earmarked taxes and general fund appropriations for support of foundation programs, 90–91; economic indexes of local financial ability, 82–83; education of nonresident pupils, state foundation program with respect to, 54–67; equalization aid, defined, 45–47; equalization of tax burden, 85–86; equalization plan, advantages of, 85–86; factors affecting local financial ability, 83–84; form of school aid appropriation, foundation program, 91; formula for computing state apportionments, foundation program, 87–88; formulas for computing costs of foundation educational programs, 52–53, 68–78; grades included in state foundation program, 54–67; increase in revenue from nonproperty tax sources, 83–84; influence of schools in improving property tax assessments, 83; limitations on local property tax rates, 84; local governments' contribution to cost of foundation program, 79–84, 93–94; measurement of financial ability on basis of yield of uniform local tax rate, 79–81; measures of educational need, 52, 68–78; measures of educational need and local financial ability, 47–48; measures of local ability on the basis of property valuations expressed in other terms than the yield of a uniform local tax rate, 81–82; measures of local financial ability, 79–83; one foundation program should be defined, 92; percent of total cost of foundation program contributed by state, 87; preservation of local autonomy, 86; pupil transportation, state foundation program with respect to, 54–67; relation of equalization aid to general aid within the minimum program, 88–89; relation of foundation program costs to total school expenditures, 53; relation of minimum program aid to total state aid for support of schools, 89–90; reorganization of local school units, 84; reward for efforts, defined, 45–47; school buildings and grounds, state foundation program with respect to, 54–67; sources of state funds for support of foundation programs, 90–91; state aid for reward of local effort, 86; state foundation program, criteria for determining, 51; state foundation program, definition of, 49–78; state foundation program, length of school term, 54–67; state foundation program should be defined by law, 92–93; state foundation program should bear some relation to provision of a suitable level of educational opportunity, 93; state's responsibility, 45; state's share in cost of foundation school program, 85–91, 94; statutory bases of state foundation programs for schools, 43–100; statutory definition of state foundation programs in terms of cost, 68–78; statutory definition of state foundation program in terms of educational content, 54–67; teacher load, state foundation program with respect to, 54–67; teachers' salaries, state foundation program with respect to, 54–67; teachers' salary schedules in definition of school foundation programs, 51–52.
Schoolhouses: See School buildings.
School sessions: grade level at which half-day sessions were in operation, geographic regions, 1947–48, 153; half-day, 1947–48, as reported by 1600 city-school systems, 152–53; percent of cities having half-day sessions, 1947–48, 153.
School year, Length: foundation program, by states, 54–67.
Sectarian education: in the public schools, 23–24.
Segregation in education: constitutional or statutory provisions regarding, 10–12.
Selected references: legal status of the public-school pupil, 39; school housing needs in city-school systems, 1947–48, 167.
State aid for education: See School finance.
Strayer, George D.: referred to, 46, 82.
Studenski, Paul: referred to, 48.
Suspension of public-school pupils: powers of schoolboards, 26–27.

Taxation: See School finance.
Teacher liability: See Liability, Legal: of teachers.
Teacher welfare: efforts to improve at state and national levels, 126, 130; efforts to improve at the local level, 125, 128–30.
Teachers' salaries: state foundation program with respect to, 54–67.
Teachers' salary schedules: in definition of school foundation programs, 51–52.
Teaching load: state foundation program with respect to, 54–67.
Textbooks: Statutory provisions for, in public schools, 24–25.
Thurston, Lee M.: estimate of needed expenditures on school buildings, 159.
Tort action: definition of, 31.
Transportation: for school activities, 18; pupil, 16–18; state foundation program with respect to, 54–67; state provisions for, 17.
Tuition in public schools: constitutional and statutory provisions, 8–9.

U. S. Office of Education: Bulletin, 1930, No. 36, referred to, 119.
Updegraff, Harlan: referred to, 46.

Vaccination: requirement for admission to public schools, 12.

Walker, Mabel L.: referred to, 83.

UNIVERSITY OF MICHIGAN LIBRARIES

N

R

V